Today, I am marrying intention with action!
Day 2

Today's gua is Career.

Welcome to day two on the marriage of intention and action discovery tour! Today, we are moving to the Career Gua. This gua relates to the Deep Water Trigram of the I Ching. We must be willing to go deep inside ourselves to search for our life's purpose. What is the career of your heart? In The Western Guide to Feng Shui, Terah Kathryn Collins says, " To follow our bliss can be one of the greatest challenges of our lives. It requires times of soul searching, humility, and trust in the unknown. The I Ching suggests that only by plumbing our own depths are we able to find the answers to our career questions and emerge buoyant and ready to focus our energies on our new work goals." The Career Gua is about much more than just your job. It is also about diving into the depth of your soul and listening to its sweet voice and guidance.

When you think about your life's purpose, job, or soul's longing, what does it mean to you? It does not matter what your job is or what your life's purpose may be. How are YOU using the deep water within to express the truth of who YOU are? We are each free to flow as who we are.

Water is the element associated with the Career Gua. If you are having difficulty determining your intentions, take a bath. Stir the water with your hands and feel the energy within you release and begin moving. Are you drinking enough water? Energy moves easier through a well-hydrated body. Water flows. Allow your breath to flow softly like water and feel the tension release from your neck.

Ask your questions:

What is my intention?

How do I live my intention?

Here is how I answered these questions:

What is my intention?

To me, career is about so much more than just my job. It is the marrying of my life's purpose and work. Work then is an avenue of expressing my life's purpose, soul's work, and my truth.

In my case, I am a light holder. As I hold the light of my truth, others are able to find their truth.

My intention is to be that light holder so that we are all empowered and uplifted.

How do I live my intention?

One step at a time. In many ways. Asking within for direction. Taking action regarding my being a light holder.

That is as far as I got because I had the idea of sharing this process with all of you. Offering the opportunity of marrying intention and action to you was taking action in being a light holder. If you are going to hold the light, you have to hold it out where someone can see it. I chose the step of offering this course. A step is a step is a step no matter what size or shape. It is still a step in living my intention.

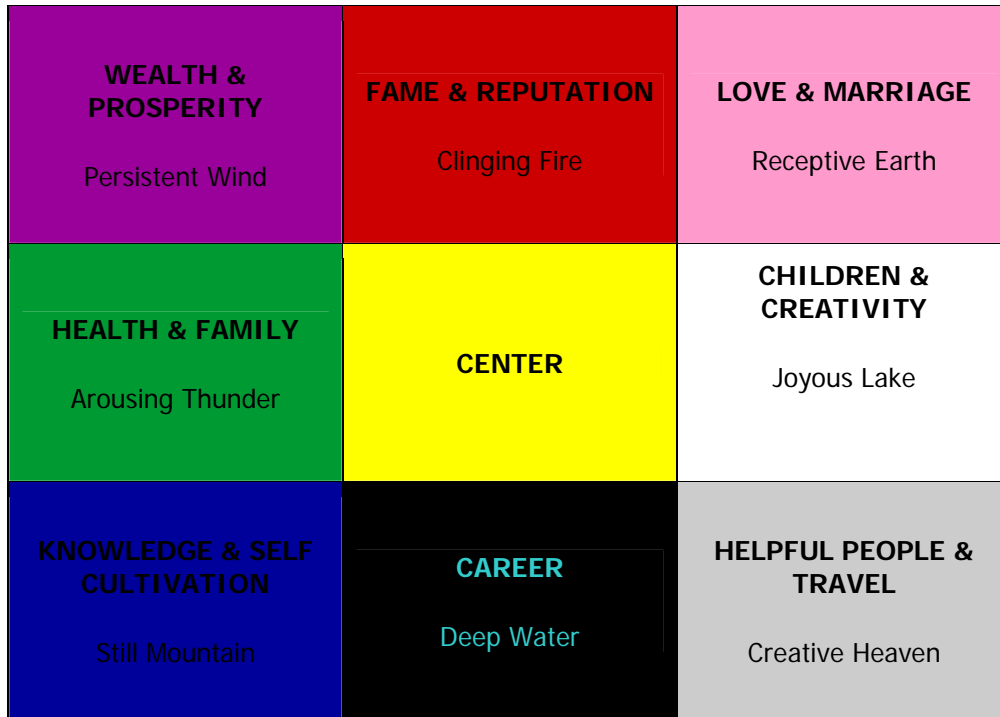

Great job! Have fun with this discovery tour and remember you have a free pass from any and all judgment!

See you tomorrow!

Much Love,
Terri
